Outagamie County Horse Project Schooling Show

Schooling Show

By definition, a schooling show is practice, not to be perfect, but to be better and try something, maybe you'll love it. Intended to be fun, supportive and encouraging to all participants.

Show Attire & Tack

Show attire is not required. However, collared long sleeved shirts, long pants/breeches, boots, helmets are required for all classes beyond halter classes. Proper tack is required for your chosen discipline. Leg wraps are acceptable. On occasion schooling during classes is acceptable. Hackamores are in acceptance as well, schooling show should be fun. Parents/ siblings no show attire.
