Outagamie County Horse Project Schooling Show

Schooling Show

By definition, a schooling show is practice, not to be perfect, but to be better and try something, maybe you'll love it. Intended to be fun, supportive and encouraging to all participants.

Show Attire & Tack

Show attire is not required. However, collared long sleeved shirts, long pants/breeches, boots, helmets are required for all classes beyond halter classes. Proper tack is required for your chosen discipline. Leg wraps are acceptable. On occasion schooling during classes is acceptable. Hackamores are in acceptance as well, schooling show should be fun. Parents/siblings no show attire.

Please reserve walk/trot (WT) to newer riders, limited canter riders, Horseless horse riders. If you have shown in walk/trot/canter (WTC) last year at our fair, please show in WTC at this show, not walk/trot.

Rookie, self determined, if you are honestly newer to the horse program or discipline. Yes, you may cross enter into WTC classes, we encourage you to try new things. (Horseless horse is ONLY WT)

Versatility class, this is not your first show, you are very experienced, no tack changing needed.

These classes will be run without the official judge present at the end of the day.

These are intended for extra practice and trying something new.
